OCTOBER.

Willis Gaylord Clark thus discourses of October, solemn, yet beautiful to view.

Month of my heart, thou darrest here,

With serene and faded leaves to strew

The Summer's melancholy bier.

The mourning of thy winds I hear,

As the red sunset dies away,

And tapers of purple cloud appear,

Obscuring every Western star.

Thou solemn month! Fear thy voice,

It tells my soul of other days,

When but to live was to rejoice,

When earth was lovely to my gaze.

O, visions bright! O, blessed hours!

I ask my spirit's raptures now!

KENTUCKY CENTRAL RAILROAD

UP TRAINS
Leave Lexington at 6:00 A. M., and 2:35 P. M.
Arrive at Paris at 10:14 A. M., and 6:49 P. M.
Arrive at Cincinnati at 11:00 A. M., and 7:45 P. M.

DOWN TRAINS
Leave Lexington at 4:45 A. M., and 12:50 P. M.
Arrive at Paris at 5:36 A. M., and 1:41 P. M.
Arrive at Cincinnati at 10:19 A. M., and 6:00 P. M.

The morning train from Lexington, and the afternoon train from Lexington, connect with the Cincinnati train.

Mr. S. H. Parris is our Advertising Agent in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Rev. G. A. Weeks will preach in St. Peter's (Episcopal) Church, in this city, on Sunday next, at the usual hour—10:30 A. M., and 7 P. M.

See advertisement of the sale of Wainwright's land and corn to-morrow.

The farm of the late Dr. J. A. Lyle, containing 107 acres, and adjoining Paris, was rented on Wednesday last at auction, to Mr. Robt. C. Hearne, until the 1st of March, 1867, at $11 15 per acre.

The fall term of the Bourbon Circuit Court commenced on Monday last. Judge Goodloe presiding. We understand that few cases will be tried during the term.

H. T. Brent's houses and vacant lots are to be sold on to-morrow, at auction.

Mr. John Hukill purchased at auction on Saturday last, the residence of Mr. John B. Anderson, on Main street, for $3,550.

The Smalley Brothers have added to their former business, a large stock of Boots and Shoes. If therefore you want a covering for your head or soles for your feet, just call at their store in the new block and supply yourself. Then they have furs, &c., to keep you warm and comfortable in winter. Ladies and gentlemen, the Smalleys have a superior assortment of goods in their lines and can suit you to a nicety.

An error occurred in the advertisement of Mr. Chas. T. Garrard, in our last paper. The sale will take place on Wednesday, Nov. 15, instead of Nov. 19. We invite attention to this sale, as Mr. G. is one of our best and most enterprising farmers, and such property is not every day put into market. The farm is one of the most desirable tracts in the county. The buildings are commodious, substantial, convenient, and in excellent repair. Mr. G. has devoted his life to fix up a home, in every sense of the word, and every thing on the place—houses, fencing, fruit, &c., attest his good taste and judgment. He has been for years one of our most successful breeders of cattle, and his herd enjoys a wide reputation throughout the county, which together with his other stock, all of the best order will be brought under the hammer. The sale will doubtless be largely attended.

The Mayor of Lexington has issued his proclamation, ordering owners of slaves to remove them from the city, and take care of them.

The Louisville Democrat, of Wednesday, learns that a guerrilla party are chasing the negroes out of the Western part of the State.

The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons for Kentucky, is now in session at Louisville. Delegates are in attendance from over two hundred Lodges.

There is a large gang of horse thieves plying their vocation in the counties of Grant, Pendleton, Boone and Bracken. The stolen horses are generally sold in the Cincinnati market.

Louisville has determined to have an opera house, and has already raised over $180,000 by subscription, to build it.

Hon. Alvin Duvall, has been re-appointed reporter for the Court of Appeals of Kentucky.

Mr. John W. Clay sold on the 12th inst., his farm containing between 150 and 155 acres, about 4 miles from Paris, (known as the Sam. H. Clay place,) at auction, at $103 10 per acre. Benj. F. Bedford, Jr., was the purchaser, Wellcome back, Ben.

The Presbyterian Synod of Kentucky is now in session at Louisville. The Rev. Robert T. Beck, of Richmond, was elected Moderator. The action of the General Assembly, for several years, and the memorial of the Louisville Presbytery against its deliveries, were made the subject of a very able and animated discussion, in which Dr. R. J. Breckinridge and Dr. S. R. Wilson chiefly participated. The whole subject was finally laid upon the table, by a vote of 53 to 47. The Synod will hold its next annual meeting at Henderson, Ky.

A horrible accident occurred on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, near Lancaster, on Saturday last. The axle of a passenger car broke, letting the occupants drop upon the track, where they were run over by the rear cars. Eight persons were killed. We understand that Mr. Eringer, and wife, of this place, on their bridal tour, were on the train, but escaped injury.

Henry Magruder, the notorious guerrilla, is to be hung to-day at Louisville.

Three highwaymen robbed a Mr. Payne within 6 miles of Louisville, on Monday evening last, of several hundred dollars and an overcoat.

Dr. Jenkins, a notorious guerrilla, was shot on Friday night last, in an attempt to rob a citizen of Mercer county in this State.

Since the proclamation of President Johnson, revoking martial law in Kentucky, the Jeffersonville ferry-boat refuses to carry negroes across the Ohio river, on Gen. Palmer's passes. Some discharged negro soldiers attempted to cross on Tuesday last, but were promptly refused, when Gen. Watkins sent a guard to the boat, and had them sent across the river. Since that time, Gen. Palmer has detailed a guard to remain at the ferry, and let negroes with his passes, cross on the boat.

Sixty colored men, women and children, who allege that they were driven away from the community in which they lived, by the white people, arrived in Covington on Saturday evening, per the Kentucky Central railroad, and crossed the river to Ohio. They were provided with military passes.

The Lexington Observer, of Wednesday last, says: "Mr. Thomas Muir, who lives on the Bryant Station road, near the place where the negro regiments are encamped, shot a black soldier on Sunday night while in the act of stealing one of his hogs. Mr. Muir came into the city and reported the affair to Headquarters, and received the proper information that he had done right."

A dispatch, dated Washington City, Oct. 14, says:—

"A riot occurred here this afternoon between the 107th Kentucky Colored Volunteers and some white troops. Muskets were fired and bayonets freely used. Three or four negroes were killed and several wounded. None of the whites were killed but several were injured. At one time, the riot threatened such serious consequences that a battalion of the Veteran Reserve Corps was ordered out. The police and provost guards had quelled it, however, before they arrived. The Kentucky Colored Regiment is one of the new ones ordered here for garrison duty."

The Lexington Observer and Reporter says:—

"Mr. Henry T. Duncan has had in operation for some days past, on his farm near this city, a corn-cutting machine made in Illinois, and of a pattern now extensively used in that State. He informs us that with one horse, a boy to drive, and three men to stack the corn he can easily cut ten acres of corn per day. Such a machine will be very valuable to our farmers, and if upon a thorough test it is found to answer expectation, they should take care to provide themselves with one in time for the next season."

A most distressing casualty happened in the vicinity of Brandenburg, Ky., on Saturday last. The children of a Mr. Plodgett, while out gathering walnuts, found a loaded percussion shell, which they carried home with them, and upon examining it and showing it to some of their little friends, the missile exploded, fearfully wounding the whole party of children, eight or nine in number. Four or five of the sufferers are in all probability fatally injured, and the others will be crippled for life. Mr. Plodgett was also badly, though not seriously, wounded by a fragment of the shell.

Miscellaneous Items.

North Carolina will not produce over 200 bales of cotton this season.

The Dismal Swamp is on fire. Thousands of acres have been burned to the water's edge.

Mr. Hood, in Oregon, a volcano, is now in a state of eruption. The bursting forth of its lava is thought to have produced the shock of earthquake felt in California.

Immense frauds have been discovered in the interior revenue at Nashville. One liquor house has swindled the Government. It is said, out of $150,000.

Jeff. Davis is pleased with his new quarters at Carroll Hall. He takes a daily promenade on the parapet, and seems to enjoy excellent health. He is guarded with as much vigilance as ever.

Lieut. Maury, late of the Confederate Navy, has been naturalized a citizen of Mexico.

Six hundred Spencer rifles, in boxes, were seized by the Canadian authorities at Niagara City, one day last week. It is reported a case of Fenian smuggling.

General McClellan is expected to arrive in New York, from Europe, in about three weeks.

Fifty-four persons have just perished by a steamer explosion on the Pacific. Thirty-two of the victims were Chinamen.

Kenneth Rayner, of North Carolina, is out in a letter strongly advocating the separation of races.

The Virginia Central Railroad has been repaired, and communication is now unbroken between Atlanta and Washington, via Knoxville and Richmond.

Mr. Henry Cohen, of Boyle county, has raised a Sweet Potato, weighing seven and a half pounds, and measuring 24 by 22 inches!

Portions of the West Indies have just been visited by a severe earthquake, and a violent hurricane.

A private letter from Japan says that the floods in that country have been greater than have been experienced for the last one hundred and thirty years.

Another very destructive fire occurred in New York City, on Tuesday last. Two hundred warehouses on Bridge street, stored with immense quantities of cotton, flour and whisky, were damaged to the extent of $509,000. The losses are thought to be covered by insurance.

Nearly 200,000 bushels of last year's potatoes have been shipped from Bangor, Maine, many at as low a price as twenty-five cents a bushel, and large quantities remain on hand. The new crop promises to be immense, selling for seventy-five cents a bushel.

It is stated that not more than one-third of the able-bodied freedmen are at work in the South. The rest are loafers and idlers.

It is estimated that the tobacco crop in the valley of the Connecticut this year will be equal to the value of six millions of dollars.

The Swedish emigration to Virginia is said to be successful. The planters are delighted with the Swedes.

During the present month the Freedmen's Bureau has restored to twenty parties in Virginia alone, property involving an immense sum of money.

The bay gelding Dexter, whose feat of trotting a mile in 2:18 1-5 is the best on record, is the property of George Alay, of New York; who purchased him for a mere song, two years ago. Flora Temple's Kalamazoo time—2:19 3-4—has, heretofore, been the best. Dexter had a fine day and a splendid track for his feat. The best time he ever made in a race before was 2:24.

Forty persons were poisoned recently in Shuloh, Illinois, by having corrosive sublimate administered to them by mistake for calomel. Seven have died, and fears are entertained for others. Neither the physician nor local druggist were to blame as the medicine was taken from the package in which it came, from a St. Louis establishment, and probably from England.

A great cotton swindle has been discovered in Augusta, Ga. It embraces nearly 12,000 bales of cotton, of the value of about $2,000,000. The names of several prominent military officers are mixed up in the affair, among them Generals Grosvenor and Steadman.

A Boston correspondent of the Rochester [N. Y.] Democrat writes thus about the tomb of Daniel Webster in Marshfield: "When the son of Fletcher Webster was buried the other day, his grandfather's coffin was again opened, and his remains found in a perfect state of preservation. There is a secret about it, but those features will never be seen again."

A South Carolina paper asserts that orders have been issued by the Government directing the restoration of the Sea Islands to their original owners. It will be remembered that these islands were set aside by order of General Sherman for colored colonization.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

A VALUABLE FARM

FOR SALE.

HAVING determined to quit farming, I will offer for sale the farm on which I now reside, containing about 100 Acres.

Of nice land. The farm has upon it a beautiful improved residence of modern style, and every other building new and superior. It is in perfect order. The house is new, contains six good rooms, with back and front porch, good dry cellars under four rooms, and perfectly safe roof. The stables are very large and well arranged, having been built by Capt. Thos. Steele for the purpose of training. There is plenty of fruit of every variety, and the soil is fertile. This farm is well located, (near Back Hill Church) for farming purposes, being situated on immediately on the Georgetown and Frankfort pike, 11 miles from the former and 6 1/2 from the latter place, within 4 miles of the Spring Station on the Lexington and Louisville railroad.

I will sell at the same time and place, my entire
